Subject: canberra international airport

i am a very frequent flyer , and i don't want any housing in the areas proposed. where is this so called demand for the folks to live in these areas?? other than in the greedy mind of the tin pot qbn council and builders. i am retired and in my mid 60's. i fly for fun , and am very aware that the National Capital Airport is where it is for special meaning. these include the closeness to the seat of government , the governor-general and prime minister etc , as well as defence. ideas that the airport be moved exists in the minds of loons.

for first 30 years of my life i lived at 69 railway road sydenham nsw in the ministers area.the minister is well aware that my former home was demolished years ago because of Sydney airport.

should there EVER be homes built in tralee etc. it should be on the basis that the owners will NOT be able to change the Canberra airports operations.

yours sincerely
