

From:
Sent: Saturday, 2 May 2009 10:24 AM
To: Info @ Canberra Airport
Subject: [NEWSENDER] - Canberra Airport Curfew - Message is from an unknown sender

Hello,

I would just like to add my voice to support a 24 hour airport in Canberra.

Canberra is our nations capital, and should have such facilities. It would be very self-destructing to have the capital suffer a curfew, whilst other airports like Tullamarine enjoy 24 hour access. No wonder Melbourne is going places with such forward thinking.

I live near the airport in Sydney, and I also support Kingsford Smith being operated 24 hours. With Canberra crucial as our nations capital city, and Sydney as our international gateway city, we need to forward think, not stagnatiously cling to the days of tumbleweeds blowing down the street.

In my opinion, do not instigate a curfew, you will be sorry down the track should you ever wish to remove it.

Regards,
Jason Inskip